MARKETING

The Ag Council publishes an informative newsletter, operates a website with real-time updates, and maintains an active social media presence. Sponsors are featured through these outlets to build brand and product identification within our network. Marketing opportunities increase incrementally with each sponsorship level. Additional opportunities are available, including presentations or event sponsorships.

NETWORKING

The Ag Council has several hundred members and thousands of followers including farmers, agribusinesses and others interested in agriculture. Regular meetings throughout the year provide opportunities to further market products and engage with industry leaders.

ADVOCACY

The Ag Council provides year-round governmental affairs services for the interest of Arkansas farmers and agricultural businesses in both Little Rock and Washington, D.C. We facilitate the development of public policies that benefit farmers and the row crop agriculture industry. We work with sponsors to address legislative issues or regulatory matters of common concern.

INSURANCE

Ag Council sponsors may be eligible for high value insurance programs including Ag Comp, a superior Agricultural Workers Compensation policy, and Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance coverage.
