

Cotton Farm Policy Update Webinar and PAC Fundraiser

In Support of

NCC's Committee for the Advancement of Cotton

November 17, 2021

4:00-5:00 pm

Sponsored by

Agricultural Council of Arkansas Leadership

All producers and industry members are invited to attend an update session on latest cotton farm policy issues by NCC VP of Washington Operations, Reece Langley.

This session will also serve to build support for the National Cotton Council's PAC - CAC. It is important for Arkansas cotton industry members to ensure the cotton industry has the political resources to be successful in Washington DC.

A minimum $500 is requested, however, any contribution will be accepted. Checks need to be made payable to CAC. Partnership checks need to include names of partners and no corporate checks are allowed. If you are unable to attend and would like to contribute, please mail your check, payable to:

CAC
Box 2995
Cordova, TN 38808-2995

We look forward to seeing you on November 17.

It is important to note that no corporate checks are allowed. Partnership checks are allowed as long as none of the partners are corporations or if non-corporate partners designate their contribution separate from corporate partners. If your contribution is made from eligible partners or partnerships, please include the names of the partners for our Federal Election Committee reporting requirements. Contributions to the Committee for the Advancement of Cotton ("CAC") are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. This communication is intended for members of the NCC's "restricted class" only, please do not forward. Contributions to CAC are strictly voluntary, and the contribution guidelines given are only suggestions. You are free to contribute more or less than the guidelines stated; NCC will not favor or disadvantage anyone by reason of the amount of their contribution or their decision not to contribute. The purpose of CAC is political; you have a right to refuse to contribute without reprisal. Federal law requires the PAC to use best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation, and employer name of each individual whose contributions exceed $200 in a calendar year.
